Scraps of Wisdom

General Membership Meeting

Tuesday, February 5, 2008 • Meeting will start at 7:00 pm, 6:30 social hour - Valley Assembly of God, 15618 E. Broadway

February Program: Round Robin

Our traditional program for February will again be presented as a Round Robin demonstration showcasing various quilting skills, tips, and tricks. Topic suggestions received from our December meeting attendees were reviewed and I am currently looking for members who will agree to share their expertise.

Suggestions for demonstrations included the following topics:

Bias binding, Applique techniques, sewing circles, rotary cutter use and care, and Trapunto. Please plan to attend and see what we were able to put together for you.

Our Guild is comprised of many knowledgeable and talented individuals, however, there is always something new to learn or be improved upon. I hope all February meeting attendees will find this Round Robin helpful and informative as well as enjoyable!! See you all at the February meeting.

- Judith

Membership Dues Have Changed

The membership has voted to change the dues from $10.00 to $15.00 beginning January 2008.

Community Sew Day Update

I want to thank all of the members who helped our great cause; making quilts and bringing materials and supplies.

We donated 144 quilts, 243 Christmas Stockings, 11 pillow cases and various groceries to the Spokane Valley Partners. My granddaughter donated 19 of her stuffed animals.

It's been a great year and I'm so proud of al of you. If you could only see the eyes of the children who receive the quilts you'd be very blessed and understand how much your gift of service means.

I look forward to the next year working with all of you.

Note: if the weather is bad call me between 8 am and 9 am to find out if we are meeting. Love, Alvina 509-226-4639

Mission Statement

Our common interest in quilting brings us together to befriend and encourage each other, to share ideas and skills to gain knowledge of our craft by providing a comprehensive library and experienced teachers, and to participate in community service projects.

President's Message

Do you believe it is 2008? When I was 10 years old, the thought of living to see the year 2000 meant I would be ancient if I was still alive!!! Well, to some I may seem ancient but I really feel quite young and ready to take on another 30, 40, maybe 50 years!!! I need that long to complete all the projects I have planned and use all the fabric in my stash. My husband, John, has jokingly renamed my sewing room to my "Fabric Storage Room" as I cannot get into it any more to comfortably sew. I do try very hard not to buy more fabric but it is just so hard to walk away empty handed from all the wonderful quilt shops we are lucky to have in our area. He does contribute to my weakness, though, by giving me gift certificates to my favorite shops!

Well here's to another new beginning and another chance to finish those UFO's for next Christmas! (Come on now. Admit it!! I can't be the only one that did not get all those wonderful projects done again this year.) I am working on the President's Challenge and will have that ready for you at our February meeting. I know, another project. It is always exciting to see what special quilts you all will create for this event.

Please remember to use our wonderful website, www.svqg.info to access all the latest information and events as well as past newsletters. Elizabeth Casteel has been working hard to update an already wonderful site. She is asking for past guild history and would love to have any of our long term members share information with her for the website.

Welcome to our new Board members. I am looking forward to working with each and everyone this year. We have some new faces that are anxious to share their ideas. We also have returning members to give us stability and history to draw from. I thank each member for taking on the challenge to help guide our Guild through 2008. We still need a Door Prize Chairperson. This position can be shared by several people and I think you would all have a ball with it!! Think about it everyone and let me know. Also, think about this.....how sad you all will be without that door prize drawing we end each meeting with!!!

Hopefully, our Guild will continue to grow in the coming year because of how our members take the time to share their enthusiasm and quilting skills with each other and the community. Don't forget, we still need to work on selling tickets for our 2008 raffle quilt. It would be nice if we could make this the most successful raffle quilt sale ever!! We can if we all pitch in together.

I would like to end by thanking Deanna for her time and efforts as our 2007 president. It was an interesting year and you truly represented us well!!

Small Groups

We have some interesting news. The Valley Spoolers have outgrown their meeting place at the lovely Broadway Court Estates. They're now meeting at a new site, and because they're at maximum size for a 'small' group, they have closed their membership. However, the good news is that the gracious people at Broadway Court would consider offering their crafts room to another small group. If you have a little group of quilt sisters who want to meet in the evenings there, let them know.

By the way, if you're thinking of forming a group but don't quite know where to begin, the Spoolers would be happy to godmother you through the process, just like Karyn Monroe and Joye Gill did for us 4 years ago. Call Susie Schmidt, 928-2595, for information.

Tuesday Thimbles meet every Tuesday, 9 to 1 at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 26th and Pines. They work on their own quilts as well as many community service projects. Bring a sack lunch.

Ladies of the Lake meet first Fridays, 12:30 to 3 pm. Call Leslie Norman, 255-1188.

Valley Assembly Quilters: This group meets Mondays except holidays, 9-11 a.m. It's not just for members of Valley Assembly of God. All are welcome. Contact Jayneta Butler, 926-8363.

Sunshine Committee

We have had several of our “quilting sisters” in need of a little ray of sunshine in the past two months. So, on behalf of our guild, I sent a “Thinking of You” card to Joye Gill when her mother had a stroke in November. Also in November a card of encouragement, heartfelt best wishes and prayers was sent to Norma Johnson as she enters into her battle with cancer. Upon learning that Shirley Kaiser had her other foot operated on, I sent a Get Well card to her. In December Jean Dickey took a bad fall and ended up having surgery on her wrist and a Get Well card was sent to her. Two Sympathy cards were sent out in December. Berda Mayther lost her mother and Susan Borges lost her father. When Jeannie Mors daughter had a kidney transplant I thought she needed to know we were thinking of her and a card was sent. I hope I haven't left anyone out and I do so appreciate the phone calls or e-mails to let me know when cards are needed. I have “Congratulations”, “Bravo”, “Way to Go” cards too so if you know when something great has happen to one of our sisters, this would be a good time to sent a card too!

Jane Anderson 928-8221

Care Quilts

We will be scheduling a sew day soon so keep on the lookout for times and dates.

We have used up our stash of finished quilts. A lot of quilt sisters are still out there needing a hug. Please keep up the donations so we can fill those needs.

Dimensions

Please remember that quilts for Vanessa Behan should be in the 38”X58” ballpark so that they fit their beds.

SVQG Website

For those of you who are new and for those of you aren't and have just forgotten, we have a great website where you can see the latest news, event information and updated class times and topics. You can download the newsletter and see the “quilt Show” in color. Check us out, you'll like it. In order to download the newsletter and the block of the month, you need to have a current version of Adobe Acrobat Reader which is free for download on the internet.

Fabric Exchange Lottery: How It Works

At each meeting, members may participate in either (or both) fabric exchange or a fabric lottery.

To participate in the fabric exchange, a member places 5 pieces of the designated size of a specified color or type of fabric concealed in an envelope. She may enter one or several envelopes. At the general meeting the member puts her envelopes in the pool and may take an equal number for herself.

To participate in the fabric lottery, the member brings any amount she wishes of fat quarters in the designated type (color or prints). They are placed in a stack.

For each fat quarter, she placed her name in a drawing. The drawing takes place at the break in the general meeting. If there are a lot of fat quarters, then there may be more than one winner. The member(s) whose name is drawn wins the fat quarters.

Fabric Exchange

5 1/2” squares of white, black or red or any combination of the three.

Fabric Lottery

For the fat quarter drawing, anything with hearts.

For the December meeting, there were 15 fat quarters which were won by Joye Gill.

“Thank You” From Deanna

I want to tell you again thank you for letting me be Snowbuddy. I have never felt as much like snowbuddy as I did the night you gave me my wonderful quilt. Every time I look at the quilt I am reminded of the pride I feel in what we have accomplished. In all the fun we had, in the dreams we dreamt, the plans we made, in the goals we set, in the hands we held. We did this together. We had a great year, we had a tough year but we learned, we grew, we loved.

Each of you have touched my heart and will continue to do so as I continue to be with you and continue to learn from each of you the things you can teach me. I will never forget how you made me feel with those happy little warm funny faces on this gift of love. Thank you for your kindness, thoughtfulness and consideration. I appreciate that you felt I was worthy of this honor.

However, if you think this is going to stop me from trying to railroad you into project, committee, a new thought, a new way of looking at something or tempting you with a piece of chocolate to get my way you are sadly mistaken.

There is no place like home and for a sad poor quilt sister like me, you make me feel right at home.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you again. - All my love, Deanna

Library Review: Applique: What a Great Connector!

Recently a friend asked me to give her a hand project to help fill the hours of a long hospital stay. I wanted to find something with warmth and love and heart in it, so I picked up "Friends Forever Quilting Together" by Nancy Smith and Lynda Milligan. I found a darling flower appliqué pattern, a very easy bread basket cover. I pawed through my stash, found a packet of fat quarters, copied the pattern off the page, and took the whole pile to her to see if she liked it. Yes, she did. I did too, so we're both going to make one. It was magic to find something we both liked that we could do together. She's a very special friend. I think that's the real draw of quilting. The things we make have connecting power, often in mysterious ways.

At the same time that I was rummaging through the book bin for my friend I found several other appliqué books I love, and all of them are powerful connectors. "Replique Quilts-- Appliqué Designs from Favorite Photos," by Chris Lynn Kirsch, is a great one. How lovely to take a photo of a beloved family home and make a wallhanging of it for a grandchild or an aunt, or a picture of a favorite pet for a child. This book takes simple examples and leads the quilter through more and more steps until she's ready for the most intricate designs. The warmth of fabric and colors and the love of the subject can become a treasure like nothing else.

Another favorite appliqué book is "Whimsies and Whynots, A Playful Approach to Quiltmaking" by Spokane's own Mary Lou Weidman. It's not a technical how-to book. It's a release-your-expectations-and-fears-and-start-exploring book. Using her examples rockets us into the closet of dream stuff and memories. I love the one on page 32, titled "Too Hot." It shows a young couple parked on a hill overlooking a moonlit valley. Hm. Maybe we'll move on!

Whatever your favorite image may be, a lapful of fabric and a needle and thread can lift it into the realm of beauty and memories, tying us together across town or across the world, and certainly down through the generations. The library has these and other appliqué books. Come take a look. -Susie Schmidt, Librarian

2008 Mystery Quilted Wall Hanging February Block of the Month:

Tomato Pincushion

This year's blocks will make a cute row quilt wallhanging for your sewing room. Or, you could use the blocks on kitchen towels, potholders, gifts or sewing room items. You need just three fabrics to create this month's tomato pincushion. All of the patterns this year will have a mandatory white or white on white fabric background for continuity in the block exchange. Block will square up to 6 1/2". You will need four of these blocks for your row quilt, plus some for the exchange.

For each block you will need:

White background fabric:

One 2" x 7" strip for the top of the block

One 1" x 7" strip for the bottom of the block

Two 1 1/2" x 5" strips for the sides

Four 1 1/2" x 1 1/2" squares for the corners of the tomato

Red fabric:

One 5" square for the tomato pincushion

Green fabric:

Two 2" squares for the leaves

Place a 1 1/2" white square on each corner of the red square, right sides together. Stitch diagonally across each white square and press toward the corner to create your tomato shape. Do not trim the white squares. Sew on the white side strips. Sew the bottom white strip on.

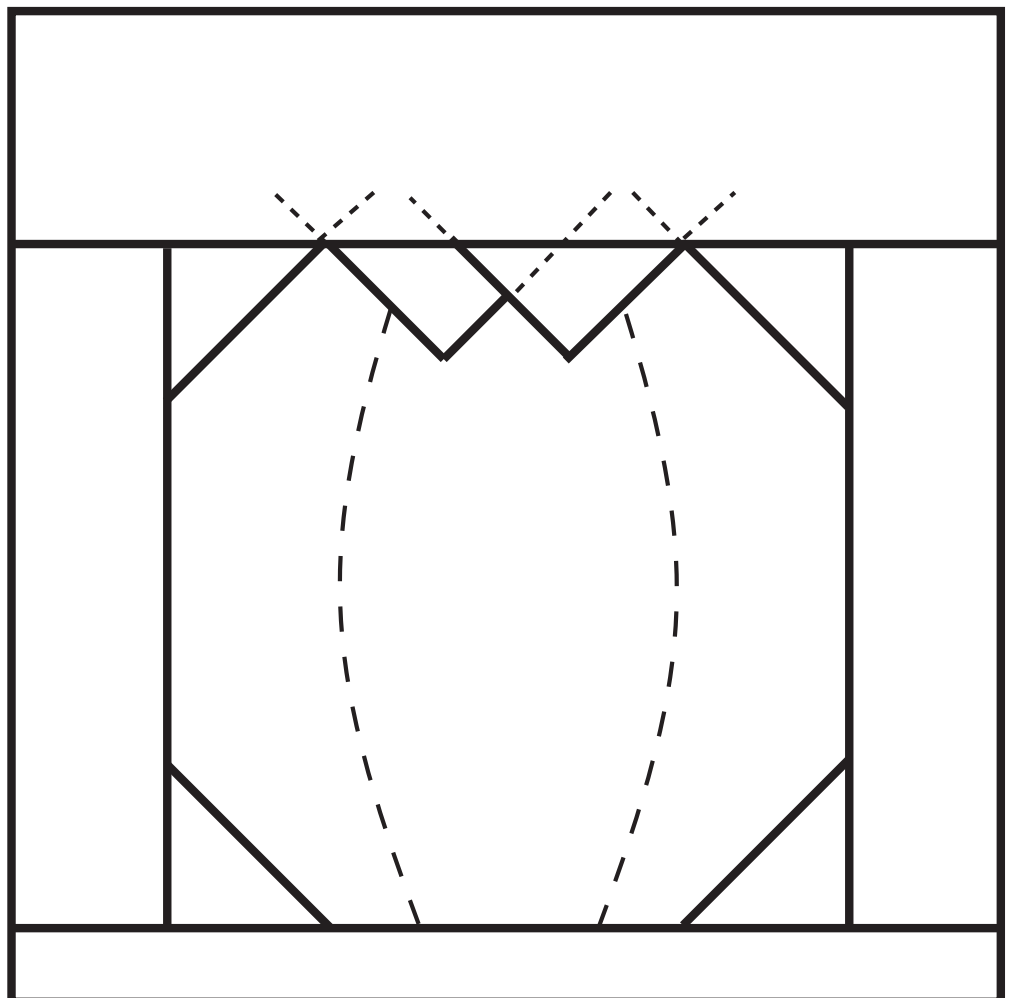

Fold the green squares in half diagonally, press, fold in half diagonally again and press. These are "prairie points" and will become the "leaves" of your pincushion. Position the prairie point leaves with all raw edges together and green triangle edges 1/4" over the top red tomato edges, and baste in place. You can position these at different heights, or use just one leaf—whatever you choose. Add the top white strip, enclosing the prairie points and your block is almost complete.

Trim the white strip on the bottom of your block to 1/2". Square the block to 6 1/2".

You could satin stitch "pins" in your pincushion, but I think I'll use real pins—it will be faster and add three dimensions. You can add vertical lines in your tomato now or when you machine or hand quilt it.

For each block you turn in, your name goes into a drawing to win a row of blocks. Enter as many blocks as you wish. When you make an item with your won blocks, you get a bottle of "Sew-Da," bottled right here in the Spokane Valley --just for us! It's full of yummy fiber!

Any questions? Please call Lynda Burns 927-0848.
